never gave up on us even when we wanted to.

We've never forgotten this man or the class he taught us to master. We all graduated and became architects. We couldn't have done it without him. This man, and other dedicated teachers, is a major reason why Cal Poly has gone from a very good college to one of the best universities in America.

Just got around to reading the latest Cal Poly Magazine (spring '98) and was wondering why the editor felt it necessary to add "[sic]" to Mr. Kernberger's letter. I also attended Cal State Poly College in the '60s . . . and that was the name of the school back then. You can look it up.

— Ray Dees (MATH '69)

We did, and Mr. Dees is correct. We were confused by the current names of Cal Poly, Pomona (Cal State Poly University) and Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo (California Polytechnic State University). - Editor

Just got the latest Cal Poly Magazine and read Mr. Kernberger's unhappy letter. In your reply, you missed the perfect opportunity to also tell him that your publication is printed on campus in the Graphic Communication Department by students who are being educated in the process of "the real world." Cal Poly's learn-by-doing motto is lived out every day on campus, but especially by the Graphic Communication and Journalism departments, who partner to turn out the Mustang Daily newspaper, among other things.

I'm a proud graduate of Cal Poly and I'm making a good living using the skills and knowledge I learned there. [And while I was] in college, being an employee of University Graphics Systems helped pay my expenses.

Invite Mr. Kernberger for a tour next time he's in SLO and bring him up to date on the "real education" that goes on at Cal Poly and produces excellent publications like Cal Poly Magazine. Keep up the great work. You make me proud!
